DEDICATION

To the memory of Robert M. Love (my grandfather) whose work along this line first inspired my efforts, I respectfully dedicate these pages.

GENEALOGY

This has been a "labor of love." If what has been written and collected, in this booklet, may help to unite, to take pride in our name, to emulate the virtues of those gone before, to never sully the escutcheon of our ancestors, the historian will be amply repaid.

The same may be said for the grafting on the "family tree" those who come to us by marriage. We are proud of them and welcome them within the fold

PREFACE

We have not endeavored to write a complete history of the Love Family; rather concentrating upon a genealogy for the most part, attempting to obtain the names of all the descendants of George Love and Mary Isabella Smith Love.

We have written hundreds of letters, visited cemeteries, court houses, read deeds and abstracts, viewed dozens of old Bible records, letters, pictures, obituaries, visited many Love families in many states. Many new friendships have been formed and many former ties have been renewed.

We wish to express our gratitude to all who have furnished this information and contributed toward the compiling of the book.

In some instances we have obtained different dates from various sources. We have endeavored to select the date we thought most accurate.

Naturally any genealogy is not complete. New "twigs" are sprouted upon the "family tree," others have withered away. In these mobile days addresses change frequently. The farther back we go the more difficult it is to find the information desired.

Fortunately, with the assistance of various members of the family, I fell heir to a number of old letters recording the genealogy for the first four generations of each of the seven branches. In 1910, I attempted to piece this information together and write a brief history. It was read and corrected by John M. Amos, editor of Daily Jeffersonian, Cambridge, Ohio. In so far as I have been able to determine the data is authentic, fragmentary as it is.

The magnitude of the task brought an interruption of effort through the years. Little by little the genealogy has now been completed. No doubt errors and omissions have been made, so we beg the reader to view it "not with the critic's eye, but pass the imperfections by."

SECOND LOVE FAMILY REUNION

This picture, belonging to Neva Henderson Davis, St. Clairsville, was taken of those attending second Love Family Reunion in 1887 at New Athens, Ohio.

THE REUNIONS

The first Love Reunion was held in 1885 at the suggestion of John Love of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, who was visiting his old boyhood home in Ohio at that time. The reunion was held in Maple Grove home of Robert M. Love at New Athens, Ohio. Many succeeding reunions were held in his sugar camp."

The hospitality, cheer and good feeling was so general that it was voted to hold a second reunion in two years. These first reunions were held for two days. The night sessions were of especial note; old as well as young playing pranks and having a "rollicking good time." Staying over night was one of the chief attractions; cousins coming from many states to "stay over" with the George Love, Sr. family. Robert M. Love, Mary Lyle, Margaret Henderson and George Love, and the Cadiz Loves. Robert Love slept and breakfasted forty one night, Aunt Ell Love invited everyone—some two hundred, to stay over night with her. On one occasion Lyles bedded down the overflow of Loves in their haymow. What a happy heritage!

THE NAME LOVE

The name of Love is said to have been originally used either as a baptismal name or as a nickname and to be later adopted as a surname.

One possible derivation from the endearment, "the Love" and the other from the French, "le loup," Latin "lufus" meaning "the wolf."

In the earliest records seven or eight centuries ago, we find these forms of Lupus, Loup, Luf, Lov, and finally Love. True surnames, we are told, date back to around 1000 A.D. introduced from Normandy prior to Norman Conquest, with Saxon forms prior to that date.

Families of this name were to be found in the early counties of Cambridge, Oxford, Buckingham, Sussex and Kent in England; in counties of Ayr and Wighton in Scotland and many parts of Ireland.

Tradition says original name in Scotland was "Mac Love". When they moved to Ireland our ancestors dropped the "Mac" to sound more like a Protestant name.

One of early names was Robert Le Love of Buckinghamshire before 1264. In 1580 there were many Loves in Scotland spelled Robert Luiff, Laird of Cuslet, Thomas Love in Ireland 1650. It is not definitely known from which branch of the Love family in the British Isles the first emigrants of the Love name came to America. We do know the Loves were among the earliest settlers in the new world. First recorded was a John Love in Boston, Massachusetts in 1635, Richard Love in Virginia in 1642, other Loves few years later in Tennessee, S. Carolina, Pennsylvania, and Florida.

These early Americans passed on old and honored names coming from the landed gentry and yeomanry of British Isles. The name Love, no doubt, "was a symbol not of one man but of a family and all that family stood for."

Like the cost of arms, symbolization of the name warrior ancestors bore in battle, the name Love through their progenitors became "the badge of family honor, the good name to be proud of, to protect and to fight for if need be."

To quote from Media Research Bureau, Washington, D. C., "one of the most ancient and frequently used coats of arms of the Love family of England is that described as follows (Burke, General Armory, 1884):

Arms, - - - "vert, a lion rampant, reguardant," or

Crest, - - - "a demi greyhound rampant argent, collared and lined sable, end of line coiled."

To quote again from Media Research Bureau, Washington, D. C.: "more recent representatives of these and other branches of the family in America have spread to every state of the Union and have contributed as much to the growth and expansion of the nation as their forbears did to its foundation. The Loves are known, on the whole, as a vital and active race and have been prominent in the public affairs of the country, as well as in professional life."

“OUR LOVES”

“Lest We Forget” is reason for this sketchy history. It is true we know very little of our early American ancestors, but the little we do know is somewhat of an index to their many virtues, hopes, struggles, defeats and victories. In a larger sense we honor and benefit ourselves in so doing.

We of the generation now living and those of generations to follow will receive an incentive to a higher and better life. We have learned or listened to the fact that the Love family stood in no indefinite terms for patriotism, education, temperance, thrift and religion.

Due to religious persecution in Scotland our ancestors moved into the northern part of Ireland in the last half of the Seventeenth Century. Thus our Scotch-Irish heritage.

They were Calvinists and Presbyterians almost to a man and suffered much for their faith.

The history of our Loves dates back to the year 1791 when George Love and Mary Isabella Smith Love, his wife, left old Ireland's shore in a sailing vessel. After a rough voyage, they landed in New York where they remained for a short time. They were accompanied on this journey to America by Nancy Love, sister of George, whose husband was Benjamin Anderson. These two families moved to Washington County, Pa. Benjamin bought a farm of two different tracts near Washington, Penna. — total of 100 acres on Brush Run S. W. corner of Hopewell Township, for 75 pounds cash in hand, January 8, 1791; land procured from the government by an Edward Anderson, probably a cousin.

The records show that there were Loves and Andersons in Washington County, Penna. prior to 1790. Perhaps this relationship had something to do with George and Isabella Love's settlement there.

George and Mary Isabella Love had eight children, four sons and four daughters all born in Ireland. It is thought one of the daughters died in Ireland: Seven children came to America with their parents: John, George, Thomas, William, Mary, Catherine and Jane.

Nancy Love Anderson and Benjamin had six children: William, Benjamin, Jane (all three married in Ireland), Thomas, George and a sixth child, who died on the passage from Ireland to America.

The good capital of immigrants is described as “a little money, good health, strong hands and brave hearts.” Our emigrant ancestors came to America when roads were either bridle paths or a passage scarcely sufficient for a wagon. Large portions of land were native forest. There were few grist mills, few sawmills. The spinning wheel and hand loom furnished the principal part of clothing. The best dwellings were primitive log cabins built of unhewed logs with a big chimney on the outside made from clay mortar near by. Most of their luxuries were transported on pack horses or in covered wagons from east of the Allegheny mountains. Salt was especially hard to get. Their arrival was soon after the close of the Revolution—too late for Daughters of American Revolution.

In 1800 George and Isabella Love moved to Belmont County, Ohio, where he bought a farm of 160 acres, two miles south of Shepherdstown, Ohio. George died here April 23, 1824, and was buried at Crabapple Cemetery, two miles south of New Athens, Ohio.

Isabella died a few years later at her daughter's in early 1830's and was laid to rest in Cadiz Cemetery, Cadiz, Ohio, the roads being too bad to drive to Crabapple Cemetery to bury her beside her husband.

George Love possessed a mild temperament but was determined when necessary. He was often called the peace-maker among his own kindred. He was a very successful farmer. By religious profession he was a Presbyterian, while Isabel, his wife, was a Seceder of a very strict religious belief. For a number of years the descendants of George and Isabella adhered very strictly to the doctrines of the United Presbyterian Church. George and Isabella Love and their descendants were not only loyal to their church but were devoted to their homes as well.

As a rule the early Loves followed closely the principles of the Democratic party, many holding political offices and positions of distinction and honor.

The Loves were ever ready to respond to the call of their country if necessary; several having fought and died for their country in the War of 1812, Civil War, Spanish, World Wars I and II and Korea.

It can be noted with pride that very few, if any of the Loves were imprisoned or in any way stained the name of which we all are so proud. This suggests that the lineage at first must have been pure. No higher honor can we bestow upon the memory of our ancestors, George and Isabella Love, than to keep that name stainless; to maintain the simple rugged virtues that characterized that old Scotch-Irish stock from which we sprang.

To them we owe our mental and physical vigor, a race which always stood on the side of civil and religious liberty.

George and Isabella's seven children all married and reared large families.

For over one hundred years the Loves lived mainly in the east near the old inheritance of their fathers but as years pass by we find those bearing the name of "Love" in all parts of United States.

The Loves as a family have been especially favored with good health, having inherited no physical or mental disability, most of them privileged to enjoy their threescore and ten plus. They have been noted for their energy, thrift, honesty and uprightness in dealing not only among themselves but with their friends and neighbors as well.

We can all feel duly proud that as a family they have always been congenial, thus making it possible to hold a "Love Reunion" every few years.

It is this kindred tie which interests us in each other, that brings us together. The unity of feeling and purpose lies in the tie of inheritance. None of those who have attended these reunions can appreciate the feelings of those of their own blood who meet perhaps for the first and last time.

A REQUEST

The writer of this brief history requests that members of the Love family, by whatever name known, shall procure one of these booklets for two reasons:

First: That the member may have a better knowledge of the origin, history and characteristics of the progenitors of the Love family.

Second: That the member may have in a convenient form, a record book in which future births, deaths and marriages may be recorded for future generations.

In some instances space was allowed for information only partially known.

A number of blank pages are left after each branch for this purpose.

THE ANDERSONS

Nancy Love married Benjamin Anderson, grandson of Benjamin Anderson and Nancy Love Anderson who emigrated to America with Nancy's brother George Love and Isabella Love. Benjamin, III and Nancy Love, II were cousins. Their descendants have the unique distinction of having two grandmother Loves who married two Benjamin Andersons. The old time parlance called it "a lap in the blanket."

Nancy Love, the first, and Benjamin, the first, were married in 1780 in Ireland; came to America with his brother Matthew Anderson and wife, and nephew John Scott. Matthew located permanently in Washington County, Pa. Benjamin and Nancy had six children. William and Benjamin were both colonels in the War of 1812, as well as their father, Benjamin, who was Colonel in War of 1812. Son George died at sea enroute to America, at age of 18.

Land patent Co. William Anderson:

Farm located two and one half miles north of Cadiz, Ohio, a little to the west. Then Jefferson County, now Harrison, N. E. Quarter, Section 3, Township 11, Range 5, Nov. 10, 1811.

COOKE

George Cooke and Nancy Moore Cooke located in Washington County Pa., near Washington, Pa. Perhaps this was the reason the Loves, George and Isabel, Nancy Love Anderson and Benjamin Anderson, her husband, Matthew and nephew John Scott located there. Record states early land grants were given to Loves, Moores, Cookes, and Andersons in Washington, Pa. prior to 1790.

The question is often asked, how are the descendants of John Love related to the Cookes? For this reason we shall divert from direct line of lineage of John Love to Mary Cooke, his wife.

Mary Cooke who married John Love was daughter of James Cooke, son of Robert Cooke, native of Scotland, moved to Ireland. James married Nancy Moore in Ireland. They came to America about 1788. Mary Cooke, their only child at that time, came with them.

James and Nancy came direct to Washington County, Pa. Perhaps this is the reason the Loves, George and Isabel, Nancy Love Anderson and Benjamin, Matthew, and nephew John Scott located there, then in New Athens Harrison County, Ohio, in 1805.

is church merged with Associate Reformed Church in 1858 to become the United Presbyterian Church.

James and Nancy Cooke were one of eight families who helped organize Unity United Presbyterian Country Church near New Athens, Ohio. Their son Thomas was one of organizers, also daughter Mary Cooke who married John Love. James Cooke died in 1815; Nancy Cooke in 1829.

James Cooke was buried in Unity Cemetery, being the oldest grave in the cemetery, so stated on his tombstone. His daughter Mary Cooke Love buried beside her father. John Cooke and his second wife Mary (Polly) White are buried nearby.

JOHN

John Love, eldest son of George and Mary Isabella Love, was born about 1774 in Ireland. Died March 21, 1862. Married in 1807 to Mary Cooke who was born in Ireland in 1786. Died Dec. 16, 1830.

John and Mary Love lived in the early log cabin days. The present generations know little of their struggles, hardships and dangers, how they wrested a living from hard-to-clear land. Keeping vigilance by night and day lest their domestic animals be destroyed by wolf or bear. With gun in hand they went to church. Some stood guard while others worshiped lest they be overtaken by unfriendly Indians, sometimes seeking protection in block houses.

John Love came to Harrison County, Athens Township, in 1808 from his father's home (Geo. Isabel) in Belmont County. He purchased a large tract of land in Athens Township which remained in Love name for generations. 260 acres for $1000. Section 4, Twp. #9, Range 5.

John Love took great interest in early days of Harrison County. He erected a home one mile south of New Athens.

Quote from Harrison County Commemorative Record:

"He, (John Love) early identified himself with the Democratic party, in which he was a zealous worker and leader. By nature endowed with native judgment and shrewd business qualifications, to which in mature years he added a wide range of experience and knowledge of men, he was well qualified to fill satisfactorily the many offices of trust and honor to which he was called. From early age he was a member of the United Presbyterian Church."

John and Mary Love had six children: Nancy, George, James, Thomas, Mary, John. Nancy, eldest, married Benjamin Anderson. George, the second, attended the common school during the winter months, augmented by much private study. His influence was great for schools of his township. George was one of the early founders of Franklin College. He married Jane McCracken. They built a home on Section 34, Athens Township, near New Athens, Ohio.

James Love married and located at Cadiz, Ohio. Thomas Love married Agnes Henderson, and Mary Love married Joseph Wallace, made Aledo, Ill., their permanent home while youngest son John married Nancy Downing and moved on to Oklahoma to stake a claim for his family.

George and Jane Love are buried at Unity Cemetery, New Athens, O., near his parents' graves, John Love and Mary Cooke Love.

GEORGE LOVE

George Love II, second son of George Love I and Isabella Love, was born in County Tyrone, Ireland in 1784.

He came to America with his parents in 1791. He was a soldier and farmer.

George II served in War of 1812 as a Captain under General Harrison in Northwest Ohio.

George Love II lived on a farm two miles south of Shepherdstown, Ohio, on the Fairpoint road. This was the original George Love I farm where they settled on coming to Ohio in 1800. This farm of 160 acres is located in Section 15, Township 8, Range 4, Belmont County, Ohio two miles south of Shepherdstown, Ohio. George Love II died on this farm in 1829 when youngest son George III was two years old.

George Love II married Mary Moore April 17, 1822. They had three sons. Thomas Love, eldest, was a carpenter and farmer. He married Mary Leckliter. They had four children: Belle, Wallace, George and Alice. They lived in Winter Set, Iowa. John Love, second son, was a carpenter. He never married; died young.

George Love III, third son, was a carpenter and farmer. He married Barbara Barclay, November 21, 1854. They had twelve children; eight sons and four daughters.

They purchased and settled on an 800 acre farm in Nottingham Township, Harrison County, Ohio, where they established a Christian home. They were members of the Moorefield Associate Presbyterian Church until it became the Cassville United Presbyterian Church in 1858. George Love III was an elder in the Cassville Church until his death in 1910.

After George Love II died the farm was sold. His wife, Mary Moore Love, kept her dower right. Her mother, Isabella Love, owned 29 acres of this farm by inheritance from her husband, George I, deceased. Mother and daughter kept a goodly portion for their own use.

George Love II is buried in Crabapple Cemetery beside his father, George Love I. Mary Moore Love died December 9, 1863. Buried .....

THOMAS LOVE, SR.

Thomas Love, third son of George and Mary Isabella Love, was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, being one of seven children—four sons and three daughters. Thomas came to the United States with his parents in 1791 when a young child.

They remained a short time in New York City, migrating to their new country home in Washington County, Pa. In 1800 they moved to Belmont County, Ohio, where Thomas' parents bought a farm between Shepherdstown and Fairpoint, Ohio. George Love was buried in Crabapple Cemetery and Isabella Love at Cadiz.

4th Tract,

Thomas, Sr. was a farmer and a merchant trader. He plied boats down the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers carrying goods and produce to New Orleans. It was said that he returned home to Belmont County from New Orleans—"on foot"—three times. One of the last important acts of his life was the shipping of two boats loaded with goods and produce from Wheeling, W. Va. After selling the goods, produce and boats in New Orleans, he booked passage to Philadelphia, Pa. via the Atlantic Ocean. But his wife and children were never to see him again because he contracted yellow fever and died in passage June 27, 1821 and his body was buried "in the briny deep."

Thomas Love, Sr. was a man of excellent business habits and took a deep interest in the affairs of church and state.

In 1818 he married Eliza McDowell. They had two children—Matilda Jane, who died in infancy, and Thomas, Jr., who was born and died at the age of 93 at the ancestral farm at Shepherdstown, Wheeling Township, Belmont County, Ohio.

Thomas, Jr. graduated at Franklin College, New Athens, Ohio, in 1852 and United Presbyterian Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., in 1855. He was licensed to preach by the Associated Reformed Presbytery of Steubenville, Ohio, with pastorates at Waterford, Pa., Tippecanoe, Ohio, and High Ridge and St. Clairsville, Ohio.

Thomas Love, Jr. married Jane Rusk March 22, 1849. They had six children, the oldest two dying in infancy.

Thomas, Jr. was a highly respected minister of the gospel, writer of some note, beloved by his relatives and friends. He was also a successful business man, dealer in wool, and as a farmer. He willed a farm to each of his four sons near Shepherdstown, Ohio—Charles White, Thomas Rusk, Ward H. and Harvey Wilson Love.

IV WILLIAM LOVE

From P - 19

William, the fourth son of George and Isabella Love came to America with his parents in 1791.

Rosanna (Rosey) Mitchell came over on the same vessel, whom he soon married. William was born in 1770, died 1850. Rosanna died in 1864.

William first settled in Harrison Co. He purchased a farm four miles south of Bellaire, Ohio, where he lived twenty-five years or more. Here all but his two youngest children were born—John, James, George, Jane, Thomas, Joseph, Hugh, and William.

William sold this farm and moved to Noble County. At Mt. Ephraim he purchased another farm. Robert and Isabella were born here and all married here except the two youngest.

William was in good moderate circumstances. Again he sold his farm and bought 320 acres in Washington County near Carrollton, Ohio. He gave John, Hugh and William forty acres each.

Civil War broke out. His last son at home, Robert, enlisted. In 1864 Rosanna died. William made his home with his children for years. He had ten children and was well treated by all of them.

He again married a Mrs. Oliver. In 1877 he died suddenly.

William was spoken of in highest terms of respect. He was a kind neighbor, honest and upright in all his dealings with his fellow man. He had excellent health, a very intelligent man, great reader, and well posted on church and politics of the day. He was a great pacifist. He was a devout Christian and was a member of the United Presbyterian Church. People from far and near went to him for spiritual and family advice. An unkind word was never spoken against him.

MARY MORGAN

Mary Morgan was the fifth child of George and Isabella Love. She came to America with her parents in 1791.

She lived in her father's home at Shepherdstown, Ohio, until she married Jacob Morgan.

Mary had eleven children: Thomas, Isabel, Susan, George, James, Jane, William, Catherine, John, Joseph and Mary. They lived in Noble County. Mary and Jacob Morgan had 29 grand children, 50 great-grand children, 3 great-great grand children, 31 by marriage; total 124.

We know the least concerning Mary's descendants of any of seven branches. It has been over forty years since any members of the family have attended the reunions and for lack of a single address, the historian has been unable to complete their branch of the genealogy last recorded date was in 1892. If any member of the Morgan branch reads this history we would greatly appreciate it if they would make themselves known to the genealogist.

CATHERINE HAVERFIELD

Katie's mother, Isabella, died of pneumonia while visiting at Katie's home and was buried in Cadiz cemetery. The roads were so impassible her last remains could not be placed beside her husband at Crabapple Cemetery near New Athens, Ohio.

To this union were born five children: James, Isabel, Gillespie, Mary Ann and George.

The genealogy for this branch of the family is very incomplete for lack of addresses.
